Social Media Assistant (Temp) | SUSS SHBS

EDUCATION

SUSS | MSc in Strategic IP and Innovation Management (Chinese-taught), full-time, 2026 - Present.
Jincheng College of Sichuan University | BA, Radio and Television Directing, 2013 - 2017.

PROFILE

SUSS full-time postgraduate with nearly eight years in Chinese-language news and digital media. Combines multi-account operations, channel launches, interview reporting and short-form video. Experienced in organising content production and using audience feedback to improve topics and storytelling.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Multi-account Content Operations | News and technology media

Three concurrent accounts during 2026

- Operated “圳事儿”, “这不太对吧” and “掌上龙岗” concurrently. Built a Feishu dashboard and manuscript system to track scripts, editing progress and per-video metrics across accounts.
- Researched comparable accounts to inform positioning; reviewed publishing times, completion rates, comments and views to refine topics. Used selective paid promotion for underperforming videos.

“圳事儿” | Channel Launch, Scriptwriting and Editing

January - July 2026

- Built the Longgang local affairs account from scratch, primarily writing scripts and also editing videos. A concert-location explainer recorded approximately 230,000 WeChat Channels plays.

“这不太对吧” | Technology Scripts and Content Operations

May 2026 - Present

- Helped build and operate a channel with 6,364 followers across all platforms. An air-conditioning explainer recorded 2.48 million Douyin plays, 29,000 likes and 37,000 shares; a semiconductor video reached 506,000 plays.

“蒋明白” | Contributing Scriptwriter | June - July 2026

Contributed selected scripts to a Douyin account explaining regional economic and social topics (approximately 14,000 followers). Selected work: “Are All Newborns Boys?” — 36,000 likes.

Longgang Integrated Media Group, Shenzhen | New Media Editor

September 2018 - July 2026

- Wrote and edited news for “掌上龙岗” (426,700 Douyin followers), contributing to about 30 videos exceeding one million plays each; contributed to five curated videos exceeding 10 million plays on “深圳龙岗发布”.
- Reported on CUHK-Shenzhen and Shenzhen MSU-BIT University research; edited 10+ daily app news items with source and copyright checks. Produced on-camera local culture and event videos.
- Combined frontline pandemic reporting with community support, including supply distribution and queue guidance.
